

North Kent Embroiderers' Guild

We were unable to meet together as a branch this month but five ladies were lucky enough to be able to participate in a socially-distanced day school run by professional embroiderer Jenny Adin-Christie. The theme was 'shadow work'. Jenny had brought beautiful examples of her work for us to see the delicate technique. By guiding and encouraging each one of us throughout the day we were able to learn enough skills to be able to start a beautiful piece of embroidery. Jenny's diagrams and written explanations are excellent- really clear and so easy to follow that we all felt able to continue the work at home.

We are hoping to have a get together on 'Zoom' to share our work and keep in touch.
